

LIVEfree PROJECT

Safeguarding policy

Policy Statement

1. All people, regardless of their age, gender, race, religious beliefs, disability, sexual orientation, or family or social background, have equal rights to protection from abuse, neglect or exploitation.
2. LIVEfree PROJECT commits to promoting and protecting the welfare and human rights of people that interact with, or are affected by, our work - particularly those that may be at risk of abuse, neglect or exploitation. We have no tolerance for abuse, neglect or exploitation. We will take a survivor-centric approach in all that we do.
3. All staff, volunteers, partners and third parties of LIVEfree PROJECT share responsibility for protecting everyone from abuse, neglect or exploitation. Beyond this, particular people have specific responsibilities, and they must carry out their duties without exception.
4. LIVEfree PROJECT has a process for managing incidents that must be followed when one arises.

Purpose

5. The purpose of this policy is to:
 - a. Help protect people that interact with, or are affected by, LIVEfree PROJECT.
 - b. Define the key terms we use when talking about protecting people or safeguarding.
 - c. Set out and develop the way [Organisation] manages safeguarding risks.
 - d. Set out the specific roles and responsibilities of persons working in and with LIVEfree PROJECT.
 - e. Facilitate the safe management of incidents.

Definitions

6. 'Safeguarding' means protecting the welfare and human rights of people that interact with, or are affected by, LIVEfree PROJECT, particularly those that might be at risk of abuse, neglect or exploitation. This refers to any responsibility or measure undertaken to protect a person from harm.
7. 'Abuse, neglect or exploitation' means all forms of physical and mental abuse, exploitation, coercion or ill-treatment. This might include, for example:
 - a. Sexual harassment, bullying or abuse;
 - b. Sexual criminal offences and serious sexual criminal offences;
 - c. Threats of, or actual violence, verbal, emotional or social abuse;
 - d. Cultural or identity abuse, such as racial, sexual or gender-based discrimination or hate crime;
 - e. Coercion and exploitation;

- f. Abuse of power.
8. 'Reasonable grounds to suspect' is a situation where a person has some information that leads them believe that abuse, neglect or exploitation has taken place, is taking place, or may take place. It comes with a low burden of proof (in fact, no proof is needed at all), but is based on some information. Questions that may help a person to determine whether they have 'reasonable grounds to suspect' might include:
- a. Could you explain to another person why you suspect something? This helps to make sure that your suspicion is based on information, even if you have no proof.
 - b. Would an objective other person, with the same information as you, come to the same conclusion? This helps to make sure that your suspicion is as objective as possible.
9. A 'survivor-centric approach' means considering and lawfully prioritising the needs, right and wishes of survivors.
